Friends
By Tajana

Friends are the ones that will always care,
When you need help,
Your friends will be there.

True friends are the ones,
That always wants to get together,
And you don't have to beg them.

True friends will always be your friend,
And don't ask for anything in return.

When you are troubled in your life,
Your friends will come,
To help you through your strife.

Although it may be invisible,
Friendship has a greater value,
Than even gold.
