If you had the chance to run your own government would you kick people out for expressing their feelings, their beliefs, their way of thinking; would you take that all away from them; would you tell them you warned warned them or this is your last chance, don't make me tell you again; would you be able to live with yourself for knowing that you have wronged someone and you hurt their feelings; but who's to tell you you wronged someone; who's to tell you that what you've done was wrong or who's to tell you that hurts people's feelings; who's to tell you but for you to tell yourself?

If you had the chance to run your own government would you listen to the people; would you listen to their feelings, their beliefs, their way of thinking; would you give all that to them; would you treat them with respect like their one of you and they matter; but who's to say their one of you; who's to say they matter; who's to say they care and who's to say their equal; would you be happy with yourself knowing you done them right, you listen to their feelings, their beliefs, their way of thinking; but who's to tell you that's right; who's left after you kicked everyone out that doesn't agree with you or doesn't think think exactly the way you do; well if you think about it, no one is then same, they may look the same, act the same, or talk the same but the truth is no one thinks, acts, or looks the same.

So when you go ahead and start that government, remember one thing, you can't handle it alone, you need help!
