Chapter 1 school

Right I'm going to use some actual teachers from my school but there will be quite a few because this are different residential experiences mix in one so! First ive put everybody in the youth centre, in our school you have to be 14,15 or 16 in there but for the sake of this I am putting everybody in.

It is Friday morning before school everybody sat in the youth centre, in the youth centre there is a bar which sells food and an eating area around it, there is two pool tables at the far end on the youth centre. Downstairs because there is like two floors but it one room there are loads of seats and tables, and back up right at the top of the big stairs is a row of seats, where you will find us in school.

8:30am

Everybody was sat or hovering around the seats, which aren't that comfortable.

The girls were sat at one side in there little group talking and the boys where sat at the other in there little group.

Kayleigh: I'm Hungry; I didn't have breakfast this morning!

Jenny: yeah me neither come on before the bar closes I wont something to eat

Laura: Yawn, I'm bored, we've got assembly today, I can't be arsed.

Big Danny comes in hyperly bouncing up the big stairs, jumps and lands in front of us shouting morning to everybody, Jenny and Kayleigh came back from the bar with a pile load of toast and muffins stood next to Danny.

Sarah: how can you have so much energy at this time on a morning?

Everybody was lolling about with tiredness and boredom groaning at the hyper Danny.

The Bell rang, everybody grabbed there bags and walked down the massive stairs and across the room to the door (well its not really a door it's a giant hole in the wall), instead of going out side they went through the school cantina, into the newly built corridor across to the hall. The hall was huge with art student pictures on the walls a massive stage at the front and a bizarre piano, which I think no one, uses.

Mr Smith our head of year was stood at the front and all the form tutors were stood around the 200 chairs, were we sit.

Mr Smith: Right quiet please; Sit down mister Mead and mister Griffiths, Right as you know its that time of year were we go on residential, I know we have had all the exams and everything else but schools nearly over now and its time you have some fun.

Everyone began to smile at the fact of a residential; you always have fun on those, breaking rules and just generally having fun.

After the assembly, we went to our form room, because today were not doing any lessons.

I'm cutting school short because its crap!!!!!!

Everybody were walking out of school down the drive or up the Rockwood's depending were you live, thinking about the trouble they could be getting into with their parents not there.

Laura: thank god school is over

Laura P: yeah

Jessi: can't wait for residential

Kayleigh, shifty eyes: yeah we can get the boys proper bad remember what happened last time.

Croc: hay don't get me involved, if you're getting the lads tell me so I'm not there

Brittani: err yeah right Croc

Croc folded his arms in a sulk.

Dean: what the frack man?

Laura: What?

Dean: ahhh nowt!!!!!!

We got to the end of the drive all thinking of way to get each other on the residential, some people went over the bridge and others went under to catch the bus.

Saturday morning we had to meet at the civic hall, to get on the coach to take us to where we were going to stay for a week. We going to a youth hostel type thing that over looked the sea, the building was on top of a cliff with a deep forest around it.

Coach!

Everybody got on the coach we all ran to the back. Laura, Laura p Sarah Jenny and Holly got to sit on the long row at the back in front of me and Laura was Brittani and Croc fighting for the window seat also there was Ajay and Craig sat in front of Jenny and Holly, Katelynn and Jessi Sat in front of them putting there food supply bag on the headrest of the seat in front. Dean was sat with big Danny in front of Brittani and Croc and loads of other people dotted around the coach Lara and Becky were sat further down opposite each other looking up the isle to see us on the back row throwing random things at the lads behind them then looking forwards acting as nothing happened. All the teachers Mr Naylor Miss Mc Neil, Mr Smith and Miss Morley were sat at the front, of the coach walking up and down getting stuck in the isle way doing the seat belt check.

Every odd minute you could hear some burst out laughing at the teachers and maybe even some random nothing.

The coach ride is 2 hours long, and the only way to be occupied is to annoy!!!!!!

2 - coach

For the fun of it I'm going to let Ky Alli and Rio come because that would be so cool if they were. There is also Ryan who went on the trip he was funny so he's going too.

The coach ride is 2 hours long, and the only way to be occupied is to annoy!!!!!!!

Mr Naylor at the front began shouting out the rules of the coach!!!!

Laura (me) haven't we heard these rules before

Lara: ye like every time we go on a trip, for crying out loud we KNOW

Everyone looked at the shouting lunatic in the back!!!! (Lol only joking)

Mr Naylor a geography teacher (the geography residential yr10)

Mr Smith head of year derrrr (geography trip, don't know why he came he doesn't teach geography he's an English and media teacher oh well)

Miss Mc Neil (my form tutor from our end of year residential, haha that was so funny as you will find out hehe) Yr9

Miss Morley drama teacher and I mean drama (lol nut case) * alien noise *

Anyway!!!! Yr9

The coach finally began to move, we pulled out of the civic hall car park round the windy road passed the police station and up towards the ring road by Asda.

Ajay and Craig started messing around with the curtain hanging over Craig's head.

Big Danny: we have been on the coach five minutes and your already bored!!!!

Craig nodded then pushed Ajay nearly causing him to fall out of his seat, Ajay leaned back up with the evil eyes cursing the air that Craig breathed.

Jenny and Holly peered over the top of the seat to see the evil stare match!

“BOOGIES” shouted some random person from near the front of the coach, everyone looked down there at once all of us shouted BOOGIES really loud.

The little game of boogies died down after what felt like an hour of repeating the dam word and also because the teachers were screaming their heads off at the annoyance everyone was causing to “The Driver!!!!”

“line, line line line line.....”

“What the frack are you doing Croc,” asked Brittani with her eyebrow raised!!!

“Am bored!!!!” answered Croc

“Danny how long have we been on this hunk of junk they call a coach?” asked Dean

Everyone listened in to hear Danny

“errrrr.... Ahhh 30minutes!”

a great frustrated sigh ran throughout the coach, it looks like just about everybody wants to get off.

“ahh man im so fracking bored!”

We were on the coach for another hour. We travelled through vast amounts of countryside, everyone on the coach had settled down for awhile having run out of things to do we were just talking amongst us selves, about what the teacher were planning to do on this week.

Katelyn and Jessi had leaned over the isle to talk to dean and big Danny.

We stopped off in a small village about 30minutes away from were we were staying, a lot of people were complaining that they needed to go to the toilet, everyone got off the coach even though they didn't need to go, there were Scotty, Tom, Danny and Ben wondering off around the corner, there were a couple of shops nearby to were we stopped we all went to go look in the windows, some people from the coach were inside buying food for the road others were just looking at the weird touristy things.

Mr Naylor shouted “5mins and were leaving!”

After not wanting anything we went back on to the coach, it was a really hot summers day and back inside the coach were there is no breeze, it was very hot and very uncomfortable. We sat down at the back of the coach.

Jessi: hay did you eat some of my food WHO HAS EATEN MY FOOOOD!

Everyone looked around shiftily hiding their hands behind their backs

Katryln was sat down next to the window munching away at something Jessi turned around from shouting out her paranoia to sit down, she could hear a little crunching sound, couldn't see were it was coming from, Jessi looked all over to figure out where Dean prodded Katelynn in the head so she turns around with the food still in here mouth.

Jessi: YOU, you're the one eating my food.

Katelynn grabbed the chocolate bar and hide it behind her back.

Katelynn : err.... Taste good! =D

Jessi screamed and tried to get back her food, and then she looked around to see everyone munching, rolled her eyes and sat down.

Ajay and Craig were talking to jenny and holly about halo 2 and how Craig killed Ajay from behind, Ajay growled because he didn't find that so funny he started arguing about how many time he killed Craig and how Craig was cheating, holly and jenny became more interested in what they were talking about so leaned in closer.

Ky and Rio at the near front behind Alli (who in this is 17) talking about how crazy this coach is.

The coach was now driving deep in to a forest down a little road coming off the main, we travel about have a mile then turning up to a beautiful stone youth hostel (which was very nice yr9 rezi) it drove along the little road through a gate and onto the gravel driveway, the youth hostel was surrounded by forest and on the other side of the building there is a giant slope with a river at the bottom.

The coach stopped Mrs Morley had stood up telling everyone where to go and how many bedroom, sleep so many people. We got off the coach and grabbed our bags we walked into the massive building onto a corridor with red tiles on the floor, we walked down and on the right there was a door that lead into the dinning area and kitchen and further down on the right were the boys and girl bathrooms with showers and everything. At the end of the corridor there were a door that lead onto another corridor were the bedrooms were the roof and one side of the corridor were made of glass that looked out onto picnic benches and a giant chess board. The glass corridor was attached to the building with bedrooms in which bent around the corner in an L shape. At the top there were a room for 2 people were the teachers went next to that there were a 6 were Brittani, Jessi Katelynn, Lara Becky and Rio stayed in, On the bend of the L there was a room for 8 but most of the boys had already gone inside dean big Danny Alli Ky Scotty Ben tom and Danny, next to that on the bottom of the L is a 6 room (ours well mine on the residential) Me Laura p Sarah Jenny Holly and Kayleigh went in that room. And next to ours there were a 4, which Ajay and Craig went in with Ryan and croc. Croc was having issues because he wasn't with Brittani and also shivering his head off at all the cobwebs on the ceiling. After dumping our bags on our beds we went out onto the corridor back up toward where the dining area was inside there was a large wall separating the dinning area from a small corridor with giant stars that lead upstairs, we walked toward the stairs and turned to look up, hanging over the gallery was Scotty and tom shouting at Ryan and Ben to come up top to see, Ryan ad Ben had come from the courtyard through the massive glass door by the chess board that also lead into the dinning area. We carried on up the stairs to find a massive living area with loads of seats; Croc and Brittani had already found each other on a sofa with Jessi and Katelynn. Also sat down were Dean and Rio and Big Danny and Alli, on the floor sat on giant cushions were Lara and Becky, Holly ran to grab one of the big cushions, she sat down with her back against one of the sofas, Me Laura Sarah and jenny went and sat together by Holly Lara and Becky.

All the teachers were upstairs along with the owner of the place; they began telling us the rules (Wwwwwweeeeeeee.....!)

1, boys and girls were not allowed to go in the same bedroom

2, no loud noise (ye right)

3 anyone who breaks the rules goes home

A great big giant OMG ran through the room after hearing the rules.

It was still day but it was getting late the sun was beginning to set leave an orangey red sky, it was time for something to eat, (I cant remember exactly lol cos dis was part of yr9 im yr11 many years apart but I think it was) pizza was on tonight's menu three different types cheese pepperoni and tuna, the mouth water smell drove everyone to the dinner line quickly having not eating much on the journey everyone was mighty hungry. (ever walked passed subway or pizza hut, well dats wot it smelt lik, yum).

After the dinner were everyone had a nice load of hot pizza in their hungry stomachs, because it is a residential some get to sleep in tents for the first or second night depending on which group your in.

Coming up Next Chapter the Night of terror in the tent only a short chapter but very good lol!!!!

3 - Night Horror

Chapter 3. Tent Horror

Mrs Morley and the other teachers were sat in the corner of the dinning room by the cold-water dispenser near the door, after everyone had eaten and cleared there plates they began telling us who were going to be sleeping in the tents. There were going to be six boys in one tent and eight girls in another and a dumb teacher in a tent checking up on us so we can't have any fun. Croc, Alli, Ajay, Craig, Ky and Dean were sleeping in the boys tent tonight along with, Me (im just gunna call maself liz cos dats wot I get called cos ders 2 many lauras lol) , Kayleigh, Becky, Lara, Holly, Brittani, Jessi and Katelynn. And Mrs mc Neil volunteered to supervise, yes once again a great moan swept through the room. Everyone walked out of the glass door that lead onto the courtyard, we all went into our bedroom to grab our stuff if we were sleeping in tents. It was beginning to grow dark outside; we walked out of the door in the glass corridor and back into the courtyard then around the side of the building there were a gate, which we jumped over.

Over the gate there were the giant slope but flat land were we turned so see our shabby little tents posted right outside our indoor bedrooms windows, we dumped our sleeping stuff in the tent where we were going to sleep and ran onto the slope trying to run all the way down with out falling, everyone reached the bottom in varies ways, it was very dark now and you could only just see the light from the hostel at the top of the hill. Kayleigh went and sat down near to the river, Jessi Lara and Becky all joined her. Most of the boys were messing about trying to push each other in the river. Mrs mc Neil was stood at the top of the hill. You could just see a big shady figure; she came down the steps on the hill walking up to us we all stopped messing around, as she came closer.

Liz: but its not midnight its like 10 o'clock

Everyone exchanged giggles and groans

Ky: cant we actually wait till midnight its our residential `cos we really want to be asleep at 11.

Mrs Mc Neil looked around and then up to the building Mr Naylor was stood at the top. "Well we could go now and stay in there for a while!"

We walked further down the river were there were a bridge, which took you into the dark forest. Croc was a huddled up to Brittani

Ky: you scared all ready Croc

Croc: no I'm not scared just erm .... Cold!!!!

Brittani punched Ky in the arm, Alli laughed at Ky

Lara and Katelynn were walking off in front of everyone else they were looking for any planted scary things because the teachers like to do that. Liz and Kayleigh were stood behind Ky and Alli with Holly and Jessi behind miss who was near the front of the group and Ajay and Craig decided that because they were at the back messing around they would run through the trees hiding and scaring the living daylights out of Beaky.

Mean while back at the youth hostel, everyone were meant to be in their rooms, but everyone snuck out and went into the dinning area, most people had gone and sat out on the giant chess table. You could see on the top floor of the building a little light on where the teachers all were, the lads decided to be daring and sneak upstairs to see what they were doing, they snuck through the glass door of the dinning room crept up the curved stairs onto the living room, crawled across the living room floor to were the small room of teachers were. Scotty peered into the keyhole but all he could see was a table with loads of bottles on, they heard one of the teachers get up so they run to hide behind the sofas. Mr Naylor and Mr smith had come out of the room walking across the living room not noticing them hidden behind the sofa and down the stairs to the kitchen. Scotty, Tom Ryan, Ben and Danny followed down the stairs they had gone to the water dispenser.

They all peered around the wall to see if the teachers were looking, everyone in the courtyard had run seeing the teachers,

Tom: we cant stay here they catch when they go back up (whisper)

Scotty: ye but were can we go were trapped

Ben: look that dining room table get under it.

All the boys climbed under the massive table by the wall, it was dark in the dining room the only light was by the water and upstairs. They boys sat quietly under the table for about ten minutes while the teachers talked downstairs.

Back outside in the forest:

We had stopped at an old camp fire it was an opening in the forest but still surrounded by trees which rustled in the wind, there were logs in a circle around a place were the fire used to go Mrs Mc Neil (to be honest is a really nice teacher lol) was talking to the girls while the boys tried to make a fire.

Ky was looking around shiftily

Alli: Ky you cant

Ajay Craig, Dean and Croc had gone the forest to hide wood.

Ky: no one is looking,

Ky pretended to rub sticks together then he put his hand under the pile of sticks and then set it on fire with his hand, they sat down by it, everyone looked at the fire and moved in closer to feel a little heat.

Ky: see no one saw that

Alli: you were lucky

Ky: I need to go into the forest

Alli: what for?

Ky: wings can't be kept down forever

Alli: well I'm going with you because you'll probably get our cover blow, you now were stuck here no such thing as low profile to you is there.

Ky laughed and they both walked into the darkness.

Ajay Craig Dean and Croc had come back to see the fire already done, they just put their pile of logs by it and sat down with the rest everyone was now sat around the fire in a circle, Ky and Alli were still in the Forest.

Dean decided he wanted to tell a ghost story, about real life vampires and werewolves savagely killing people, everyone were huddled up together for the final bit in the story, it was all quiet, then a huge roar like a monster creature came from behind them everyone screamed, and ran to the other side of the fire to look in the forest to see where the roar came from, a few moments of silence then there were rustling coming towards them, everyone were frightened at the creature drawing near, the rustling stopped, out of the trees two figures came out, it was all quiet until the figures burst out laughing and walked closer to the fire light to show their faces, it was Ky and Alli.

Katelynn: oh my god, you scared the life out of us

Kayleigh: are you crazy you nearly gave me a heart attack

Liz: ahahahahaha that was funny, you idiots what were you trying to do.

Ky and Alli joined the circle around the fire.

Ky: lol you should of seen your faces

Dean: good one, you even got me a little scared.

Alli: were not allowed a drink, are we?

Mrs Mc Neil: erm no I'm not sure your parents would approve.

Alli and Ky looked at each other: ye our parents wouldn't approve

We spent a few hours by the fire, we let it burn down at about 2 am we walked back up to the tents

Miss: you do know we have to get up really early tomorrow for breakfast?

Liz: its ok I can be up for 9 just in time for breakfast

Everyone agreed

Miss: well I think you'll miss breakfast its at 7

Everyone at once: what?

Liz: no way

Kayleigh: you teachers are mad

Katelynn: your sick in the head

Lara: are you nuts

Becky: fine count me out of breakfast I can go without

Jessi: I cant but I'm not getting up that early no way

Ajay: rather stave!

Craig: ahahahaha

Dean: hmhhh NO

Ky: you people are weird

Miss: well may be if you stopped complaining and get some sleep then you might be awake at that time!

Brittani: rather eat gravel then get up early

Holly: I hate you!

Croc: ummmm gravel

Everyone turned to look at croc

Croc: oh come on, I was kidding

After about 10 mins of moaning everyone decided to go into the tents, everyone in the tents couldn't really sleep so they just stared at the ceiling,

Croc: Oh My GOD Arrrgh get me out of this tent

Ajay: why whats up?

Croc: SPIDERS everywhere

Croc ran out of the tent screaming, most of the girls had popped their heads out of their tent to see what all the noise was about,

Kayleigh: hehe its just croc

All the girls then went and popped their heads out to see him run around like a headless chicken,

Brittani: CROC what are you doing? (in a sort of shouting whisper)

Croc then went back inside after Ky came out and got him saying they had got rid of them all.

No one really slept, people managed to drift off at about five all the girls were having the usual sleepover kind of talk, the boys in the other tent were trying to listen to what they were saying, it's a big mystery to boys what girls talk about said Craig

The noise died down around five everyone had fallen a sleep, it got to seven o'clock an a really loud bell started ringing,

NO!!!! Shouted everyone

Weeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeee lol ok were not staying at this youth hostel all the time because on our year10 trip we went to Whitby and the place we stayed there was ace we hav 1 more day here then we move lol!!!!
