1 - A game

Dressing up in old clothes
Sing to our favorite tune
Have a blast with each other
We didn't know of our doom

Going out to play
Our favorite game Blind mans bluff
I didn't see her run into the street
I was hiding behind mums stuff
And then I heard her scream

(Chorus
It wasn't my fault
Why am I being blamed
We were only playing a game)

they say she's gone
Never to come back
And I'm still being attacked
By their guilt and shame

Our Parents cried as much as me
The blamed and blamed
But they did not see
It was only a game

(Chorus)

I sit and talk
With you again
Sing to our favorite tune
Why do they blame me
When she's right her they just don't see

They call me crazy
Say I talk to myself
But how could that be
I talk to her
Not me
Why don't they see
It was only a game

(Chorus)

Sheâ€™s her with me
