Chapter 1 - Not Quite Past the Core

1 - Not Quite Past the Core

Dismember her truth,
She's lifting off the ceiling.
Re-explain the desultory,
And watch her feign like she cares.
She is fictitious in appearance,
And you traipse unseeing.
Her expression indicates:
Oh how frustratingly homely.
Another boy
Blind to actuality and I
If only he could see
Blind to his immaturity,
His uncertainty.
Intoxicated by inveracity,
Told by liars
That he was ready.
But only ready
To not be ready
To meet girls like me.
