2 - Other characters of mine

~

These are some other characters that i made up that know Alekazem. Both Alekazem and I be explain their background and story ^^ enjoy

---

This is Sage, she's a Neko girl that...

Alekazem: *attacks* DIE YOU UNGRATEFUL LITTLE *censored*

O.O Alekazem!!! STOP THAT!

Alekazem: okay... -_-"

Alekazem hates her because she tried to take place as #1 Oc, and she was a pest to her for the longest time. If the get together it's like Hell on earth. Strange thing is, a year later she's friends with other Neko girl, Selina. I'm quiet surprised that worked out.

Alekazem: Cuz Selina and Chaos are actually cool and not doges. Selina could kick her @$@ any day ^^

This is Queen Shebalba, not part of Alekazem's original story line but whatever. She reminds me of the Deku princess in Majora's Mask (Zelda Game)

Alekazem: She's alright... dizzy, but alright...

This is one of Alekazem's friend's in Zelda: Ocarina of Time. Nicole, sage of darkness/shadows. This is her full element form. She's very recusive and doesn't really like anyone besides Alekazem and the other sages. She lives with and underground cult in the Royal Family Graveyard with her people. The thing is, Nicole is the only one who can turn into human form, the rest are shadows.

(btw, for all sages i use a modern version of their real name cuz they're names like Alekazem's, which her modern name is Sarah)

This is Michele in full form. She is the sage of Fire and live in the part of the moutian that can only be reached by entering the forest, passing Zora's Domain, and up the back of the moutian near the top of the moutian. She is resistant to fire and heat like all in her tribe. Her dark skin and red eyes is a common trait among her people. The traditional dress for them is dried grass and little clothes and fabric, since you fire a lot there is no need for clothes that will just burn off.

This is Tina in full form, she is the sage of Water. Her tribe is found in the depths of Hylian lake, only welcome for Zoras to visit. They don't come to the surface much
